Memories, there's just so many. His graduation, and how he also excelled in sports. He played varsity football and baseball. In those days there was a lot of excitement, laughter and fun. Drake loved his Mustang, fishing and astronomy. He had a good heart, never said or thought anything bad of anyone. He is a good son and brother we miss you very much.

My shared memory's there's so many. His graduation, how he excelled in sports, ie. baseball, football, bowling, along with his brothers. Drake's life was full of excitement, laughter, and enjoyment. Then came challenges but even through them he remained a loving son and brother. He had a loving heart, never said or thought bad of anyone. Oh, Drake loved astronomy and fishing!
