Jared Mahina Tellio-Flournoy

AUG 24, 1997 - MAR 30, 2024

Jared Tellio-Flournoy, a vibrant soul with a passion for life, left this world on March 30, 2024, at the age of 26. Born in Hilo, HI, on August 24, 1997, he touched the hearts of those who knew him. Jared was more than a pizza maker at Domino's Waiakea; he was a friend to everyone who walked through the door. His warm smile and quick wit brightened even the busiest shifts. He knew how to turn a mundane task into a memorable moment. Outside of work, Jared immersed himself in the local car scene. As a member of multiple car groups—Mistakes Were Made, Empty Thoughts, and Night Stalkers—he reveled in the camaraderie of fellow enthusiasts. Whether it was tuning engines, attending car meets, or cruising the scenic roads of Hawaii, Jared's love for cars & Bikes was infectious. His family meant the world to him. He is survived by his mother, Trina L. Tellio, and stepfather, Stafford A.K. Chock. Jared's grandparents, Mel and Lydia Tellio, held a special place in his heart. His sister, Aaliyah N. Chock, shared countless memories with him, from childhood adventures to late-night conversations.
